In Memoriam

Robert Anton Senser

Robert Anton Senser, 94, a retired FSO, died peacefully July 29 at home in Reston, Va. He served in the Army during World War II and then in the Air Force Reserve before joining the Department in 1961. His overseas assignments as labor attaché included Algiers, Saigon, Brussels and Bonn. He also worked as a writer-editor and program director with the AFL-CIO's Asian-American Free Labor Institute. After retiring in 1983, he devoted himself to child labor and human rights issues. His book, "Justice at Work: Globalization and the Human Rights of Workers," was published in March 2009.

Return