TELCON

Vorontsov/Kissinger
4:55 p.m. - 12/5/71

V: Hello.

K: I am sorry to call you on a Sunday, but I was just talking to the President to report our conversation and I mentioned that at the end of our conversation you said that in a week or so it will be over and he said that he would like you to report to Moscow that in a week or so it may be ended but it won't be over as far as we are concerned if it continues to take the present trend.

V: Yes.

H: He wants it to be clear that we are at a watershed in our relationship if it continues to go on this way.

V: I understand.

H: We cannot accept that any country would take unilateral actions like that.
