Agenda

The U.S. Department of State:

- ◆ formulates, represents and implements the President's foreign policy.

The Secretary of State:

Focus Group Session

We are looking for a group of student volunteers to participate in a focus group immediately following the town meeting.

The purpose of the group is to:

- ◆ gain insight into what international issues and concerns most engage young people;
- ◆ find out how they react to the form and content of the meeting and how well it responded to their values and interests, and;
- ◆ get feedback on how the State Department might improve its Town Meetings and other public liaison efforts to better engage young people in international affairs.
