(CT:FMH-69; 09-19-2008)
(Office of Origin: RM/FPRA/FP)

4 FAH-1 H-621 REVENUE SOURCE CODES AND DEFINITIONS

(TL:FMH-7; 05-15-1997)

- a. This subchapter prescribes the Department of State's uniform revenue source classification, titles, and definitions. These codes identify the nature of collections and deposits and are entered on accounting documents in the same sequence as object codes. For systems containing both revenue source and object code fields, data is entered in the revenue source code field.
- b. Domestic bureau allotments are used to identify transactions. No other revenue source codes, except as approved and published in this handbook, are authorized. These revenue source codes are currently applicable to Department of State activities only. Deposits of serviced agencies, such as Peace Corps, etc., are processed in accordance with the regulations of their respective agencies.

4 FAH-1 H-621.1 (A) Available Receipts

(CT:FMH-57; 06-18-2007)

Revenue source codes beginning with an "A" denote an available receipt.

4 FAH-1 H-621.2 (AA) Revenue Source Code Combinations for Budget Clearing Accounts (Suspense) and Other Funds

(CT:FMH-58; 08-27-2007)

The following table shows the revenue source codes to use for identifying proceeds of sale and various deposits credited to the Budget Clearing Account (Suspense) and other funds. Direct questions concerning proceeds not listed in the following chart to the Office of Financial Policy

4 FAH-1 H-621.3 Revolving Funds

(TL:FMH-4; 03-31-1995)

- a. Revolving funds are funds authorized by specific provisions of law to finance a continuing cycle of operations in which expenditures generate receipts and in which other receipts are available for expenditure without further action by Congress. They are classified as:
- (1) Public enterprise funds from which receipts come primarily from sources outside the U.S. Government; and
 - (2) Intragovernmental funds, from which receipts come primarily from other appropriations or funds.
- b. The Department has two types of revolving funds:
- (1) The Working Capital Fund (AB..); and
 - (2) Repatriation Loans (Credit Reform) (AC..).

4 FAH-1 H-621.6 (AD..) Deposit Funds

(CT:FMH-69; 09-19-2008)

Deposit funds are proper for any account that meets any one of the four following criteria:

- (1) Monies the U.S. Government withheld from payments for goods and services received (e.g., payroll deductions for savings bonds or state income taxes);
- (2) Deposits received from outside sources for which the U.S. Government is acting solely as a banker, fiscal agent, or custodian;
- (3) Monies the U.S. Government held while awaiting distribution on the basis of a legal determination or investigation; and
- (4) Unidentified remittances, which are credited as suspense items outside the budget (F3875), unless there is a reasonable presumption that they will be credited ultimately to a receipt appropriation or fund account within the budget, in which case amounts should be credited to the receipt-clearing account.

(TL:FMH-4; 03-31-1995)

Unavailable receipts are receipts that at the time of collection are not appropriated and that are not immediately available for expenditure because:

- (1) Congressional limitation has been established as to the amount available for expenditure; or
- (2) Amounts credited to receipt accounts are later to be cleared in whole or in part to other receipt accounts before appropriation warrant action is taken. Unappropriated receipts held in special and trust fund receipt accounts are unavailable for expenditure until appropriated pursuant to specific legislative provisions.
