

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

No. 088

Excellency,

I have the honor to refer to the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement between the United States of America and Japan, signed at Tokyo on March 8, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as "the MDA Agreement"), which provides, inter alia, that each Government will make available to the other such equipment, materials, services, or other assistance as the Government furnishing such assistance may authorize, in accordance with such detailed arrangements as may be made between them.

In pursuance of this provision, the representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Japan have held discussions for the purpose of concluding such detailed arrangements as mentioned above concerning the acquisition and production in Japan of the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials, which is in addition to the programs for the acquisition and production in Japan of the EP-3, the UP-3C, the UP-3D and the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials. Agreements concerning these programs were reached between the two Governments on March 29, 1988, on March 26, 1993, on March 29, 1994 and on March 29, 1996 with respect to the EP-3 Aircraft and related equipment and materials, on March 31, 1992 with respect to the UP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials, on March 31, 1995, on March 29, 1996 and on March 28, 1997 with respect to the UP-3D Aircraft and related equipment and materials, and on March 27, 1998 and on March 23, 2001 with respect to the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials, respectively. The following is the understanding of the Government of the United States of America regarding the results of the above-mentioned discussions:

1. In accordance with the detailed implementing arrangements to be concluded under paragraph 3, the Government of Japan will acquire or produce and the Government of the United States of America will authorize the sale or production, subject to paragraph 2, of up to one (1) OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials for a new total of three (3) OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials.
2. The production of the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials will be undertaken through the participation of the industries of the United States of America and Japan and through direct sales by the Government of the United States of America to the Government of Japan. Commercial exports of defense articles or services necessary to carry out this program will be individually authorized by the United States Department of State.

Her Excellency

Yoriko Kawaguchi,

Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan,

Tokyo.

3. The present understanding will be implemented in accordance with the MDA Agreement and arrangements concluded thereunder, including the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Japan to Facilitate Interchange of Patent Rights and Technical Information for Purposes of Defense signed at Tokyo on March 22, 1956. The detailed implementing arrangements of the present understanding will be those arrangements concluded between representatives of the competent authorities of the two Governments concerning the acquisition and production in Japan of the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials, and any subsequent amendments thereto.
4. Financial obligations or expenditures incurred by the Government of Japan under the present understanding and all arrangements to be concluded hereunder will be subject to budget authorization pursuant to the constitutional provisions of Japan.

I have the honor to propose that, if the above understanding is acceptable to the Government of Japan, the present Note and Your Excellency's reply of acceptance shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's reply.

I avail myself of this opportunity to extend to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

The following is the understanding of the Government of the United States of America regarding the results of the above-mentioned discussions:

His Excellency
Mr. Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America

1. In accordance with the detailed implementing arrangements to be concluded under paragraph 3, the Government of Japan will acquire or produce and the Government of the United States of America will authorize the sale or production, subject to paragraph 2, of up to one (1) OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials for a new total of three (3) OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials.

2. The production of the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials will be undertaken through the participation of the industries of the United States of America and Japan and through direct sales by the Government of the United States of America to the Government of Japan. Commercial exports of defense articles or services necessary to carry out this program will be individually authorized by the United States Department of State.

3. The present understanding will be implemented in accordance with the MDA Agreement and arrangements concluded thereunder, including the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Japan to Facilitate Interchange of Patent Rights and Technical Information for Purposes of Defense signed at Tokyo on March 22, 1956. The detailed implementing arrangements of the present understanding will be those arrangements concluded between representatives of the competent authorities of the two Governments concerning the acquisition and production in Japan of the OP-3C Aircraft and related equipment and materials, and any subsequent amendments thereto.

4. Financial obligations or expenditures incurred by the Government of Japan under the present understanding and all arrangements to be concluded hereunder will be subject to budget authorization pursuant to the constitutional provisions of Japan.

I have the honor to propose that, if the above understanding is acceptable to the Government of Japan, the present Note and Your Excellency's reply of acceptance shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's reply."

I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of Japan that the foregoing understanding is acceptable to the Government of Japan and to agree that Your Excellency's Note and this reply shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of this reply.

I avail myself of this opportunity to extend to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

Yoriko Kawaguchi
Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan
