ARTICLE II PURPOSE AND SCOPE

2.1. This Agreement establishes the terms and conditions by which the Army of the United States of America and the Royal Netherlands Army (hereafter referred to as "the Parties"), agree to provide on-site working assignments to selected career military personnel (hereafter referred to as "Military Exchange Personnel") from the other Party. The work assignments shall provide Military Exchange Personnel work experience and knowledge of the organization and management of Host Organization activities by performing duties under the direction of a host supervisor. Exchanges of military personnel under this Agreement shall be conducted on a reciprocal basis (one-for-one in similar duties) so that the overall benefit to each Party shall be essentially equal. This Exchange Program shall not include training, except for programs conducted to familiarize, orient, or certify exchange personnel regarding unique aspects of their assignments and as provided in paragraph 5.4. Additionally, it is not to be used as a mechanism for the exchange of information between the Parties.

2.2. Military Exchange Personnel shall not be assigned to positions under this Exchange Program that would involve the release of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data as defined in the U.S. Atomic Energy Act of 1954 as amended; communications security information for which foreign dissemination has been prohibited in whole or in part; information for which a special access authorization is required; information originated by another organization, department, agency or government; or controlled unclassified information, unless the specific information has been authorized in writing for release to the government of the Parent Party under an existing program or with the prior written consent of the appropriate disclosure authority, whichever is applicable.

2.3. Military Exchange Personnel shall not act in a liaison capacity or otherwise act as representatives of the Parent Party or the Parent Organization while assigned to exchange positions, nor shall they act as representatives of the Host Party or the Host Organization to which they are assigned. Military Exchange Personnel shall perform duties as defined in the position descriptions (PDs) for their respective positions.

ARTICLE III EXECUTIVE AGENTS

3.1. The Army of the United States of America, and the Royal Netherlands Army shall be the Executive Agents for this Agreement. The Executive Agents shall be responsible for:

4.3. The normal tour of duty for Military Exchange Personnel, exclusive of travel time between countries, shall be for a period of two years. Any time required for qualification and familiarization shall be in addition to the normal tour. Exceptions and/or adjustments of exchange tours shall be based on mutual agreement.

Military Exchange Personnel who possess parachutist ratings and are required by their exchange position duties with the Host Organization to perform parachute jumps shall be assigned to parachute duty and shall be provided with appropriate equipment and facilities according to Host Party regulations.

4.6. During the selection process, each Party shall inform the other of the level of security clearance required, if any, to permit Military Exchange Personnel to have access to classified information and work areas. Further, to the extent authorized by the laws and regulations of the government of the Host Party, Military Exchange Personnel and their authorized dependents shall be accorded on a reciprocal basis:

7.2.1. Exemption from any tax by the government of the Host Party upon income received from the government of the Parent Party.

7.2.2. Exemption from any customs and import duties or similar charges levied on items entering the country of the Host Party for their official or personal use, including their baggage, household effects, and private motor vehicles. Military Exchange Personnel shall not be placed on duty or in positions in areas of political sensitivity where their presence would jeopardize the interests of the Parent Party, or where, in the normal course of their duty, they may become involved in activities which may embarrass the Parent Party.

7.11. The Host Party shall not deploy Military Exchange Personnel in non-direct hostility situations, such as UN peacekeeping or multi-national operations, without Parent Party approval. Additionally, Military Exchange Personnel shall not be deployed to a third country as

7.12. The Host Party shall not place Military Exchange Personnel in duty assignments in which direct hostilities with forces of third states are likely. Consistent with the laws and regulations of the government of the Host Party, and upon conditions of reciprocity, the Host Organization shall provide, if available, housing and messing facilities for Military Exchange Personnel and their dependents on the same basis and priority as for its own personnel. Military Exchange Personnel shall pay messing and housing charges to the same extent as personnel of the Host Organization. At locations where facilities are not provided by the Host Organization for its own personnel, the Parent Organization shall make suitable arrangements for Military Exchange Personnel.

7.17. The U.S.-Netherlands Status of Forces Agreement pertaining to rights and privileges of military personnel while in the country of the Host Party shall apply to Military Exchange Personnel and their dependents, and, in the event of conflict, shall take precedence over this Agreement.
