- (b) the right to make stops in its territory for non-traffic purposes;
- (c) the rights otherwise specified in this Agreement.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) of this article shall be deemed to grant the right for one Party's airlines to participate in air transportation between points in the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE 3Designation and Authorization

(1) Each Party shall have the right to designate as many airlines as it wishes to conduct international air transportation in accordance with this Agreement and to withdraw or alter such designations. Such designations shall be transmitted to the other Party in writing through diplomatic channels, and shall identify whether the airline is authorized to conduct the type of air transportation specified in Annex I or in Annex II or in both.

(2) On receipt of such a designation and of applications in the form and manner prescribed from the designated airline for operating authorizations and technical permissions, the other Party shall grant appropriate authorizations and permissions with minimum procedural delay, provided:

- (a) substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Party designating the airline, nationals of that Party, or both;

- (c) the Party designating the airline is maintaining and administering the standards set forth in Article 6 (Safety).

ARTICLE 4Revocation of Authorization

(2) While entering, within or leaving the territory of one Party, its laws and regulations relating to the admission to or departure from its territory of passengers, crew or cargo on aircraft (including regulations relating to entry, clearance, aviation security, immigration, passports, customs and quarantine or, in the case of mail, postal regulations) shall be complied with by or on behalf of such passengers, crew or cargo of the other Party's airlines.

ARTICLE 6

Safety

(1) Each Party shall recognize as valid, for the purpose of operating the air transportation provided for in this Agreement, certificates of airworthiness, certificates of competency, and licenses issued or validated by the other Party and still in force, provided that the requirements for such certificates or licenses at least equal the minimum standards which may be established pursuant to the Convention. Each party may, however, refuse to recognize as valid for the purpose of flight above its own territory, certificates of competency and licenses granted to or validated for its own nationals by the other Party.

(2) Each Party may request consultations concerning the safety and security standards maintained by the other Party relating to aeronautical facilities, aircrew, aircraft, and operation of the designated airlines. If, following such consultations, one Party finds that the other Party does not effectively maintain and administer safety and security standards and requirements in these areas that at least equal the minimum standards which may be established pursuant to the Convention, the other Party shall be notified of such findings and the steps considered necessary to conform with these minimum standards; and the other Party shall take appropriate corrective action. Each Party reserves the right to withhold, revoke or limit the operating authorization or technical permission of an airline or airlines designated by the other Party in the event the other Party does not take such appropriate action within a reasonable time.

(1) The airlines of one Party may establish offices in the territory of the other Party for the promotion and sale of air transportation.

(3) Each designated airline may perform its own ground handling in the territory of the other Party ("self-handling") or, at its option, select among competing agents for such services. These rights shall be subject only to physical constraints resulting from considerations of airport safety. Where such considerations preclude self-handling, each Party shall take appropriate steps to assure that ground services shall be available on an equal basis to all airlines; charges shall be based on the costs of services provided; and such services shall be comparable to the kind and quality of services if self-handling were possible.

(4) Each airline of one Party may engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the other Party directly and, at the airline's discretion, through its agents, except as may be specifically provided for the protection of the consumer by the regulations of the country in which the traffic originates. Each airline may sell such transportation, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation, in the currency of that territory or in freely convertible currencies.

(5) Each airline of one Party may convert and remit to its country, on demand, local revenues in excess of local expenditures. Conversion and remittance shall be permitted promptly without restrictions or taxation in respect thereof at the official rate of exchange or, where agreed, the rate of exchange applicable to current transactions and remittances.

ARTICLE 9Customs Duties and Taxes

(1) On arriving in the territory of one Party, aircraft operated in international air transportation by the designated airlines of the other Party, their regular equipment, ground equipment, fuel, lubricants, consumable technical supplies, spare parts including engines, aircraft stores (including but not limited to such items as food, beverages and liquor, tobacco and other products destined for sale to or use by passengers in limited quantities during the flight), and other items intended for or used solely in connection with the operation or servicing of aircraft engaged in international air transportation shall be exempt, on the basis of reciprocity, from all import restrictions, property taxes and capital levies, customs duties, excise taxes, and similar fees and charges imposed by the national authorities, and not based on the cost of services provided, provided such equipment and supplies remain on board the aircraft.

(2) There shall also be exempt, on the basis of reciprocity, from the taxes, duties, fees and charges referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, with the exception of charges based on the cost of the service provided:

- (a) aircraft stores introduced into or supplied in the territory of a Party and taken on board, within reasonable limits, for use on outbound aircraft of a designated airline of the other Party engaged in international air transportation, even when these stores are to be used on a part of the journey performed over the territory of the Party in which they are taken on board;
- (b) ground equipment and spare parts including engines introduced into the territory of a Party for the servicing, maintenance or repair of aircraft of a designated airline of the other Party used in international air transportation; and
- (c) fuel, lubricants and consumable technical supplies introduced into or supplied in the territory of a Party for use in an aircraft of a designated airline of the other Party engaged in international air transportation, even when these supplies are to be used on a part of the journey performed over the territory of the Party in which they are taken on board.

(3) Equipment and supplies referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article may be required to be kept under the supervision or control of the appropriate authorities.

(4) The exemptions provided for by this Article shall also be available where the designated airlines of one Party have contracted with another airline, which similarly enjoys such exemptions from the other Party, for the loan or transfer in the territory of the other Party of the items specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article.

(5) Each Party shall use its best efforts to secure for the designated airlines of the other Party, on the basis of reciprocity, an exemption from taxes, duties, charges and fees imposed by State, regional and local authorities on the items specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article, as well as from fuel through-put charges, in the circumstances described in this Article, except to the extent that the charges are based on the actual cost of providing the service.

ARTICLE 10

User Charges

(1) User charges imposed by the competent charging authorities on the airlines of the other Party shall be just, reasonable, and non-discriminatory.

(2) User charges imposed on the airlines of the other Party may reflect, but shall not exceed, an equitable portion of the full economic cost to the competent charging authorities of providing the airport, air navigation, and aviation security facilities and services. Facilities and services for which charges are made shall be provided on an efficient and economic basis. Reasonable notice shall be given prior to changes in user charges. Each Party shall encourage consultations between the competent charging authorities in its territory and airlines using the services and facilities, and shall encourage the competent charging authorities and the airlines to exchange such information as may be necessary.

ARTICLE 11

Fair Competition

(1) Each Party shall allow a fair and equal opportunity for the designated airlines of both Parties to compete in the international air transportation covered by this Agreement.

(2) Each Party shall take all appropriate action within its jurisdiction to eliminate all forms of discrimination or unfair competition practices adversely affecting the competitive position of the airlines of the other Party.

(3) Neither Party shall unilaterally limit the volume of traffic, frequency or regularity of service, or the aircraft type or types operated by the designated airlines of the other Party, except as may be required for customs, technical, operational or environmental reasons under uniform conditions consistent with Article 15 of the Convention.

(4) Neither Party shall impose on the other Party's designated airlines a first refusal requirement, uplift ratio, no-objection fee, or any other requirement with respect to the capacity, frequency or traffic which would be inconsistent with the purposes of this Agreement.

(5) Neither Party shall require the filing of schedules, programs for charter flights, or operational plans by airlines of the other Party for approval, except as may be required on a non-discriminatory basis to enforce uniform conditions as foreseen by paragraph (3) of this Article or as may be specifically authorized in an Annex to this Agreement. If a Party requires filings for information purposes, it shall minimize the administrative burdens of filing requirements and procedures on air transportation intermediaries and on designated airlines of the other Party.

Pricing

(1) Each Party shall allow any airline of either Party to establish prices for air transportation based upon the needs and conditions of the marketplace. Neither Party shall take unilateral action to prevent the inauguration or continuation of any price proposed or charged by the airlines of either Party for international air transportation between the territories of the Parties unless such action is in accordance with the provisions herein. Intervention by the Parties shall be limited to:

- (a) prevention of predatory or unreasonably discriminatory prices or practices;
- (b) protection of consumers from prices that are unreasonably high or restrictive due to the abuse of a dominant position; and
- (c) protection of airlines from prices that are artificially low because of direct or indirect governmental subsidy or support.

(2) Each Party may require notification to or filing with its aeronautical authorities of prices proposed to be charged by airlines of the other Party to or from its territory. Notification or filing by the airlines of both Parties may be required no more than 60 days before the proposed date of effectiveness. In individual cases, the Party receiving a notification or filing may permit shorter notice than normally required. Neither Party shall require the notification or filing by airlines of the other Party of prices charged by charterers to the public.

(3) A Party shall notify the other Party that it is dissatisfied with a price proposed or charged for services by an airline of the other Party for international air transportation between the territories of the Parties, or by an airline of the other Party for international air transportation between the territory of the first Party and a third country, including in both cases transportation on an interline or intra-line basis, if it believes that intervention would be consistent with the considerations set forth in paragraph (1) above. Within 30 days after receipt of a notice of dissatisfaction, either Party may request consultations which shall commence as soon as possible, and in no event later than 30 days after receipt of the request. In the case of a proposed price, such notice of dissatisfaction shall be given to the other Party within 30 days of receiving the notification or filing of the price, but in no case less than 15 days before the proposed effectiveness date. The Parties shall cooperate in securing information necessary for reasoned resolution of the issue.

(4) If the Parties reach agreement with respect to a price for which a notice of dissatisfaction has been given, each Party shall use its best efforts to put that agreement into effect.

(5)(A) If notice of dissatisfaction has been served with respect to a proposed price or to a price already being charged for services, but consultations either have not been requested within 30 days of receipt of the notice, or have not resulted in an agreement, then:

- (i) unless both Parties agree otherwise, a passenger price will continue in effect or enter into effect on the proposed date of effectiveness if it is at least 40 percent but not more than 115 percent of the base normal economy fare in effect on the date the price is filed;
- (ii) either Party may take action to prevent inauguration or continuation of a passenger price if such price does not meet the conditions specified in paragraph (5)(A)(i);

(B) The base normal economy fare referred to in paragraph (5)(A)(i) above is the lowest available fare for normal economy-class service filed for and permitted by the United States Civil Aeronautics Board to go into effect on or after October 1, 1979 for travel originating in the United States, for each U.S.-Barbados city-pair market, as adjusted for cost changes consistent with the Standard Foreign Fare Level computations published periodically by the United States Government.

(6) Neither Party may take unilateral action to prevent the inauguration or continuation of a cargo price proposed or charged by an airline of either Party for transportation between the territories of the Parties.

(7) Neither Party may take unilateral action to prevent the inauguration or continuation of a first class price or premium price proposed or charged by an airline of either Party for transportation between the territories of the Parties.

(8) Notwithstanding paragraphs (5) and (6) of this Article, each Party shall allow (a) any airline of either Party, and on the basis of reciprocity, any airline of a third country to meet a price proposed, charged or accepted in the marketplace for international air transportation between the territories of the Parties, and (b) any airline of one Party to meet a price proposed, charged or accepted in the marketplace for international air transportation between the territory of the other Party and a third country. As used herein, the term "meet" means the right to establish on a timely basis, using such expedited procedures as may be necessary, an identical or similar price on a direct, interline or intra-line basis, notwithstanding differences in conditions, including but not limited to, those relating to routing, distance, roundtrip requirements, connections, type or conditions of service, aircraft configuration or type, or such price through a combination of prices.

Consultations

Either Party may, at any time, request consultations relating to this Agreement. Such consultations shall begin at the earliest possible date, but not later than 60 days from the date the other Party receives the request unless otherwise agreed. Each Party shall prepare and present during such consultations relevant evidence in support of its position in order to facilitate informed, rational and economic decisions.

Settlement of Disputes

(1) Any dispute arising under this Agreement which is not resolved by a first round of formal consultations, except those which may arise under paragraph (3) of Article 12 (Pricing), may be referred by agreement of the Parties for decision to some person or body. If the Parties do not so agree, the dispute shall at the request of either Party be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

(2) Arbitration shall be by a tribunal of three arbitrators to be constituted as follows:

(a) within 30 days after the receipt of a request for arbitration, each Party shall name one arbitrator. Within 60 days after these two arbitrators have been named, they shall by agreement appoint a third arbitrator, who shall act as President of the arbitral tribunal;

(b) if either Party fails to name an arbitrator, or if the third arbitrator is not appointed in accordance with subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, either Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to appoint the necessary arbitrator or arbitrators within 30 days. If the President is of the same nationality as one of the Parties, the most senior Vice President who is not disqualified on that ground shall make the appointment.

(3) Except as otherwise agreed, the arbitral tribunal shall determine the limits of its jurisdiction in accordance with this Agreement and shall establish its own procedure. At the direction of the tribunal or at the request of either of the Parties, a conference to determine the precise issues to be arbitrated and the specific procedures to be followed shall be held no later than 15 days after the tribunal is fully constituted.

(4) Except as otherwise agreed, each Party shall submit a memorandum within 45 days of the time the tribunal is fully constituted. Replies shall be due 60 days later. The tribunal shall hold a hearing at the request of either Party or at its discretion within 15 days after replies are due.

(5) The tribunal shall attempt to render a written decision within 30 days after completion of the hearing or, if no hearing is held, after the date both replies are submitted, whichever is sooner. The decision of the majority of the tribunal shall prevail.

(6) The Parties may submit requests for clarification of the decision within 15 days after it is rendered and any clarification given shall be issued within 15 days of such request.

(7) Each Party shall, consistent with its national law, give full effect to any decision or award of the arbitral tribunal.

(8) The expenses of the arbitral tribunal, including the fees and expenses of the arbitrators, shall be shared equally by the Parties. Any expenses incurred by the President of the International Court of Justice in connection with the procedures of paragraph (2)(b) of this Article shall be considered to be part of the expenses of the arbitral tribunal.

ARTICLE 15Termination

Either Party may, at any given time give notice in writing to the other Party of its decision to terminate this Agreement. Such notice shall be sent simultaneously to the International Civil Aviation Organization. This Agreement shall terminate at midnight (at the place of receipt of notice to the other Party) immediately before the first anniversary of the date of receipt of the notice by the other Party, unless the notice is withdrawn by agreement before the end of this period.

ARTICLE 16Multilateral Agreement

If a multilateral agreement, accepted by both Parties, concerning any matter covered by this Agreement enters into force, this Agreement shall be amended so as to conform with the provisions of the multilateral agreement.

ARTICLE 17Registration with ICAO

This agreement and all amendments thereto shall be registered with the International Civil Aviation Organization.

ARTICLE 18

Entry into Force

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of signature.

In witness whereof, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.
