No. 011

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and has the honor to refer to the provisions of the Mutual Defense Cooperation Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Hellenic Republic, which was signed at Athens on July 8, 1990 and which entered into force on November 6, 1990. The Annex attached to the Agreement constitutes an integral part thereof.

Article XII of the Agreement provides that the Agreement shall remain in force for a term of eight years, which period expires November 6, 1998. Article XII also provides that the Governments of the United States and the Hellenic Republic may agree to extend the validity of the Agreement for one year through an exchange of notes six months prior to the end of the initial term of the Agreement.

The Embassy has the honor to propose on behalf of the Government of the United States that the validity of the Mutual Defense Cooperation Agreement and Annex be extended for one year from November 6, 1998.

If the Government of the Hellenic Republic accepts this proposal, the Embassy has the further honor to propose that this note and the Ministry's affirmative note in reply shall constitute an agreement between the two governments which shall enter into force on the date of the Ministry's reply.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Hellenic Republic the assurances of its highest consideration.
