FLO Global Webinar: Adult Children Living at Home on March 8

Join the Family Liaison Office (FLO) and the Bureau of Medical Service's Deployment Stress Management Program (DSMP) on March 8 at 10:00am ET to discuss current trends and behaviors associated with adult children living with their parents. Learn tools to optimize communication and maintain healthy boundaries for a successful transition that supports independence.

To participate in the webinar go to deptofstatehr.adobeconnect.com/adultchildren.

Enter as a guest and type your first name and your current or future post. Request a copy of the e-workbook in advance. Email FLOAskUT@state.gov to request a copy.

Unaccompanied Tours Support: Before, During, and After

FLO's Unaccompanied Tours (UT) team supports employees, their families (including parents, grandparents, etc.) affected by a UT. Whether you are thinking about or currently on a UT, FLO has resources for you. Email FLOAskUT@state.gov with your questions.

- Contact Information Form—FLO does not receive a list of employees and family members experiencing a UT. Request a contact form (FLOAskUT@state.gov) so that we can provide you with resources during your UT.
- Decision Tree—Where will your family live during a UT? Use this guide to help you decide.
- Counseling Resources—Information on DSMP, the Employee Consultation Service, USAID Staff Care, and more.
- Children's Workbooks—Age appropriate workbooks to help your children understand separation.
- Children's Certificates and Medals of Appreciation— Recognize the sacrifice that your child(ren) makes while you are serving on a UT by nominating him/her for a certificate and medal.
