III. Request for Correction

- Agency Receiving Correction Request: U.S. Department of State
- Requester: U.S. Citizen
- Date Received: December 17, 2004 via e-mail
- Summary of Request: The submitter requested correction to the Department’s web page, http://travel.state.gov. The web page was to list the notary availability and fee details at the U.S. Consulate General in Chennai, India. The submitter stated “[t]he links do not have any contextually correct information. The link the consulate web site is linked to does not have any information related to notary services.”
- Description of Requested Correction: Submitter requested that the website be corrected so that other U.S. citizens are able to obtain notary services at the U.S. Consulate General in Chennai, India.
- Influential: X No
- First Agency Response: X completed (2/10/2005)
Resolution: The link to the information that was sought regarding notary services at the American Consulate General Chennai has been corrected. The information is available on the Notarial Services page at http://chennai.usconsulate.gov/notaries.html. This link provides the public with a variety of information on Consular service fees, including fees for notarial services. The submitter was advised of this action.
