

UNITED STATES PERMANENT MISSION TO THE
ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20520

No. 31-B

The United States Mission to the Organization of American States presents its compliments to the Organization of American States Secretariat and has the honor to inform it of the policies and procedures regarding the acquisition, construction, renovation, and use of real property owned by the Organization of American States in the United States, including exemption from real estate taxes.

Pursuant to section 209(a) of the Foreign Missions Act (22 U.S.C. § 4309(a)), the U.S. Department of State has determined that the application of all provisions of the Foreign Missions Act (22 U.S.C. §§ 4301-4316) to international organizations is necessary to facilitate the secure and efficient operation of the organizations, to assist in obtaining benefits, privileges and immunities for the organizations, and to require their observance of corresponding obligations in accordance with international law. A copy of the associated Designation and Determination (No. FMA-2014-2, dated January 8, 2014) is enclosed.

Approval of Real Property Transactions

Pursuant to section 205 of the Foreign Missions Act (22 U.S.C. 4305), international organizations, including the Organization of American States, are obligated to obtain the approval of the Department's Office of Foreign Missions (OFM) before finalizing a proposed lease, purchase, sale, or other acquisition or disposition of real property in the United States. This requirement applies to all property transactions involving the organization anywhere in the United States and its territories.

The Permanent Mission to the Organization of American States,

Washington, D.C. June 18, 2014

Absent OFM's approval of a proposed acquisition, use, or disposition of real property, the Organization of American States Secretariat is advised that its properties would be assumed not to enjoy any otherwise applicable privileges and immunities, including inviolability and exemption from real estate taxation.

In addition to the prior notification and approval of all leases, purchases, or sales of properties, the alteration, renovation, addition, or change in use of a property are also considered "acquisitions" under the Foreign Missions Act and must be approved by OFM. For this purpose, "alteration" includes any type of construction, repair, installation or other work that requires the issuance of a permit from the relevant and authorized local governmental authority.

The Organization of American States should submit all such requests directly to OFM.

At a minimum, the written request for approval should include:

1. The exact address of the property, including apartment, suite, or floor number;
2. The proposed or existing use of the property;
3. The proposed transaction, i.e., purchase, lease (including lease term), sale, alteration, or expansion;
4. The inclusion of one of the following statements:
  - No part of this property is or will be used for commercial purposes; or
  - A portion or all of this property is or will be used for commercial purposes and by doing so the Organization of American States understands that such use deprives the area used for such purposes of any applicable inviolability or eligibility for exemption from real estate taxation.
5. The inclusion of the following statement: The Organization of American States acknowledges that it must request and obtain the approval of the Department of State's Office of Foreign Missions prior to changing the use of this property from that which is described in this request.

6. Alterations – A description of the proposed alteration or expansion of a property, including a listing of the anticipated types of permits needed to complete the project.
7. Residential – The name(s) and position title of the intended tenant/resident.
8. Point of Contact – The name and contact information of the Organization of American States employee authorized to discuss the proposed property acquisition with OFM.

After receiving a request, 22 U.S.C. § 4305(a)(1) allows the Department a period of up to sixty (60) calendar days to review it. Although OFM is normally able to provide a response within a few weeks, the full review period may be required. Therefore, the Organization of American States is encouraged to submit requests as far in advance as possible.

The Secretariat is encouraged to discuss proposed acquisitions, alterations, or dispositions of real property with OFM's Office of Diplomatic Property, Tax, Services & Benefits (OFM/PTSB) as early as possible. Entities that obtain the benefit of OFM's experience and advice in the early stages of an acquisition, alteration, or disposition may avoid unnecessary financial or legal complications.

Real Estate Tax Exemption

To ensure that state and local tax authorities consistently extend real estate tax exemption privileges to the Organization of American States when authorized by OFM, the Department has designated such exemption as a benefit under the Foreign Missions Act on the basis of a property's authorized use for the official business of the Organization of American States. The Department has also determined that this exemption shall be provided on such terms and conditions as may be established by OFM. A copy of the associated Designation and Determination (No. FMA-2014-1, dated January 8, 2014) is enclosed.

In accordance with the procedures described below, exemption from real estate taxes on the basis of a property's authorized use for the official business of the Organization of American States may be available to the Organization of American States only with respect to property authorized by OFM for use as:

1. the premises of the Organization of American States, that is owned by the Organization of American States;
2. the primary residence of the head (Secretary General) of the Organization of American States Secretariat, that is owned by the Organization of American States;
3. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of the Organization of American States, that is owned by the Organization of American States; or
4. another category of property authorized by OFM.

Property that is owned by the Organization of American States for the purpose of constructing or renovating facilities and that OFM has authorized for use for any of the purposes described above is also eligible for an exemption from real estate taxes, provided that OFM authorized the acquisition of such property.

For these purposes, real estate taxes refer to taxes associated with the purchase, ownership, and disposition of real property, including, but not limited to, annual property tax, recordation tax, transfer tax, and the functional equivalent of deed registration charges and stamp duties. Real estate taxes do not include those that represent charges for specific services rendered, such as water and sewer usage or trash collection services. Furthermore, property lessees are not entitled to an exemption of real estate taxes on such property because such taxes are payable under state and local law by the property owner.

Procedures for Requesting Real Estate Tax Exemption

The Organization of American States Secretariat is advised that state and local tax authorities are prohibited from extending an exemption from real estate taxes associated with a property on the basis of the property's authorized use for the official business of the Organization of American States, except on the basis of written authorization from the Director of OFM/PTSB. Therefore, the Organization of American States Secretariat is requested to comply with the following procedures to facilitate OFM's authorization of the exemption:

- As described above, the Secretariat should submit requests to acquire or dispose of real property in the United States in a timely manner. When OFM approves a request, if appropriate, OFM/PTSB will deliver a letter to the relevant state and/or local tax authority to authorize an exemption from real estate taxes on the transaction (typically, transfer or recordation taxes). OFM/PTSB will also provide a copy of the letter to the Secretariat.
- When the Secretariat is purchasing property, it must inform OFM of the date the property deed is signed. When OFM/PTSB receives this information, if appropriate, it will deliver a letter to the relevant local tax authority to authorize an exemption from annual property taxes. OFM/PTSB will also provide a copy of the letter to the Secretariat.

Chancery for § 4306 Purposes

Designation and Determination No. FMA-2014-2 also provides that the principal offices of the Organization for American States used for diplomatic or related purposes, and annexes to such offices (including ancillary offices and support facilities), and including the site and any building on such site which is used for such purposes, constitute a "chancery" for purposes of 22 U.S.C. 4306.

For chanceries or chancery annexes located in the District of Columbia, the determination as to whether a proposed location, expansion or alteration is acceptable is based on the rules and criteria in section 4306. The guidelines outlined in that section are separate from, and in addition to, the notification process outlined above that is mandated by section 4305. The following information is provided to assist entities that intend to acquire new chancery space or perform alterations to existing chanceries in the District of Columbia:

1. Permit Requirements: International organizations are required to request and obtain OFM's consent for the issuance of all property-related permits. This includes the issuance of an occupancy permit, which is generally required in the District of Columbia before a building or office may be occupied as a chancery or chancery annex. The Foreign Missions Act requires entities to substantially comply with all local building codes and regulations, including obtaining all appropriate building permits. The District of Columbia's permit applications are available at www.dcr.dc.gov.
2. Zoning Approval Process: Depending on the location of the property acquired, an occupancy permit may be issued by the District of Columbia as a "matter of right" only if the property is located in one of the following zoning districts: mixed use, commercial, industrial, or waterfront. If the property is not located in one of the aforementioned zoning districts, the Foreign Missions Board of Zoning Adjustment (FMBZA) of the District of Columbia must review and approve the request of the organization to locate its chancery at its proposed location. The FMBZA review process will take several months to complete and will include a public hearing. If an acquisition or alteration is determined to be subject to FMBZA review, it is recommended that international organizations seek private legal representation to complete the approval process.

The information provided above about local zoning requirements for chancery use is not exhaustive, and the Secretariat is cautioned to fully explore the zoning and land-use implications of a particular property acquisition or alteration in the District of Columbia, including whether the property is considered historic and the construction implications of such status, before concluding any contract or agreement. Although the zoning approval process described above does not apply to locations outside the District of Columbia, the Foreign Missions Act requires international organizations to substantially comply with all local building codes and regulations, including obtaining all appropriate building permits.

Verification of Organization of American States' Properties

To ensure the accuracy of OFM's records, the Organization of American States is also requested to provide OFM with a list of properties owned, leased, or otherwise used by the Organization of American States in the United States, including:

1. The exact address of such properties, including apartment, suite, or floor numbers;
2. Whether the properties are owned or leased;
3. A description of the existing uses associated with such properties;
  - If the property is comprised of multiple floors or units, a general description of each floor's use(s) should be provided, such as "office use", "residential", or "commercial";
4. For leased properties, please provide the start and end dates of each lease;
5. The inclusion of one of the following statements with respect to each property that is owned by the Organization of American States:
  - No part of this property is used for commercial purposes; or
  - A portion or all of this property is used for commercial purposes, and by doing so, the Organization of American States understands that such use deprives the areas used for such purposes of inviolability and exemption from real estate taxation.

If a portion or all of a property is used for commercial purposes, the Organization of American States is required to provide OFM with the square footage of any area used for commercial purposes.

The Department believes the policy changes outlined above positively impact your organization's operations. The Organization of American States Secretariat is encouraged to contact OFM/PTSB at OFMProperty@state.gov or 202-895-3500 extension 5.

based swaps were, by virtue of the expansion of the Act's definition of "security" to encompass security-based swaps, subject to the application of all FINRA rules before the implementation of any SEC rules and guidance that would provide greater regulatory clarity in relation to security-based swap activities. FINRA believes that, by extending the expiration of FINRA Rule 0180, the proposed rule change will serve to promote regulatory clarity and consistency, thereby reducing burdens on the marketplace and facilitating investor protection.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>13</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.<sup>14</sup>

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or

- Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-FINRA-2014-001 on the subject line.

Paper Comments

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Elizabeth M. Murphy, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-FINRA-2014-001. This file number should be included on the subject line if email is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for Web site viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549, on official business days between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of FINRA. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions.

You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-FINRA-2014-001 and should be submitted on or before February 6, 2014.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.<sup>15</sup>

Determination Under the Foreign Missions Act

Section 209(a) of the Foreign Missions Act (22 U.S.C. 4309(a)) (hereinafter "the Act") authorizes the Secretary of State to make any provision of the Act applicable with respect to international organizations to the same extent that it is applicable with respect to foreign missions when he determines that such application is necessary to carry out the policy set forth in section 201(b) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 4301(b)) and to further the objectives set forth in section 204(b) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 4304(b)).

Section 209(b) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 4309(b)) defines "international organization" as (1) a public international organization designated as such pursuant to the International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U.S.C. § 288 et seq.) or a public international organization created pursuant to a treaty or other international agreement as an instrument through or by which two or more foreign governments engage in some aspect of their conduct of international affairs; and (2) an official mission (other than a U.S. mission) to such a public international organization, including any real property of such an organization or mission and including the personnel of such an organization or mission.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of State by the Act, and delegated by the Secretary of State to me as the Under Secretary of State for Management in Delegation of Authority No. 198, dated September 16, 1992, I hereby determine that the application of all provisions of the FMA to international organizations, as that term is defined in section 209(b), is necessary to facilitate the secure and efficient operation of public international organizations and the official missions to such organizations, to assist in obtaining benefits, privileges and immunities for these organizations, and to require their observance of corresponding obligations in accordance with international law. It will also further the objectives set forth in section 204(b) of the Act as it will assist in protecting the interests of the United States.

Furthermore, I determine that the principal offices of an international organization used for diplomatic or related purposes, and annexes to such offices (including ancillary offices and support facilities), and the site and any

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice 8597; No. FMA–2014–1]

Designation and Determination Under the Foreign Missions Act

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of State by the laws of the United States, including the Foreign Missions Act (codified at 22 U.S.C. 4301–4316) (hereinafter “the Act”), and delegated by the Secretary to me as the Under Secretary of State for Management in Delegation of Authority No. 198, dated September 16, 1992, and after due consideration of the benefits, privileges, and immunities provided to missions of the United States abroad, as well as matters related to the protection of the interests of the United States, I hereby designate as a benefit for purposes of the Act: exemption from taxes associated with the purchase, ownership, and disposition of real property, other than such as represent payment for specific services rendered (hereinafter collectively referred to as “real estate taxes”)—including, but not limited to, annual property tax, recordation tax, transfer tax, and the functional equivalent of deed registration charges and stamp duties—by a foreign mission on the basis of the property’s authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or by an international organization on the basis of the property’s authorized use for the official business of the organization.

Exemption from real estate taxes on the basis of a property’s authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of an international organization is available to a foreign mission or international organization only with respect to property authorized by the Department of State’s Office of Foreign Missions (OFM) for use as:

1. the premises of a bilateral diplomatic mission or consular post, headed by a career consular officer, that is owned by the respective foreign government or the head of the mission or consular post;

2. the premises of a consular post, headed by an honorary consular officer, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

3. the primary residence of the head of a bilateral diplomatic mission or a career head of a consular post, that is owned by the respective foreign government or the head of the mission or consular post;

4. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of a bilateral diplomatic mission or career consular post, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

5. the premises of the Organization of American States (OAS) or the United Nations (UN), that is owned by the respective organization;

6. the primary residence of the head (Secretary General) of the OAS Secretariat or the UN Secretariat, that is owned by the respective organization;

7. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of the OAS or the UN, that is owned by the respective organization;

8. the premises of a permanent mission to the OAS or the UN, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

9. the primary residence of a principal representative or resident representative of a permanent mission to the OAS or the UN with a rank of ambassador or minister plenipotentiary, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

10. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of a permanent mission to the OAS or the UN, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

11. the premises of an observer mission to the OAS or the UN of a state recognized by the United States, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

12. the primary residence of a principal representative or resident representative of an observer mission to the OAS or the UN of a state recognized by the United States with a rank of ambassador or minister plenipotentiary, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

13. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of an observer mission to the OAS or the UN of a state recognized by the United States, that is owned by the respective foreign government;

14. the premises of an international organization designated under the International Organization Immunities Act (IOIA), other than the OAS or UN, that is owned by the respective organization and is located in the District of Columbia;

15. the primary residence of the head of an international organization designated under the IOIA, other than the OAS or UN, that is owned by the respective organization and is located in the District of Columbia;

16. the primary residence of a member or members of the staff of an international organization designated under the IOIA, other than the OAS or UN, that is owned by the respective organization and is located in the District of Columbia;

17. a residence used for temporarily lodging representatives or employees of a government of a state recognized by the United States, who visit the United States for bilateral or multilateral diplomatic or consular purposes, that is owned by the respective foreign government; or

18. another category of property authorized by OFM.

Property that is owned by a foreign government or international organization for the purpose of constructing or renovating facilities and that OFM has authorized for use for any of the purposes described above is eligible for an exemption from real estate taxes, provided that OFM authorized the acquisition of such property.

I similarly designate as a benefit for purposes of the Act an exemption from real estate taxes on mission premises and residences described above that are in the custody or control of the United States pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 4305(c).

I determine that exemption from real estate taxes on the basis of a property’s authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of an international organization shall be provided on such terms and conditions as OFM may approve. The manner in which such benefits shall be extended by states, counties, municipalities, and territories shall also be subject to such terms and conditions as OFM may approve.

Following are the current terms and conditions governing the provision of exemptions from real estate taxes to foreign missions and international organizations on the basis of a property’s authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of an international organization:

- The determination of a foreign mission or international organization’s entitlement to an exemption from real estate taxes associated with a property of a type described above, on the basis of the property’s authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes, or for the official business of an international organization, is committed to the sole discretion of the Department of State. Such determinations are communicated by letter from OFM to the relevant state, county, municipal or territorial revenue authorities.

- All such letters will be signed by the Director of OFM's Office of Diplomatic Property, Tax, Services and Benefits (OFM/PTSB), or a successor office.

- Such letters serve as official notice to the relevant state, county, municipality, or territory that the described property or transaction is or is not entitled to an exemption from real estate taxes on the basis of the property's authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of an international organization.

- States, counties, municipalities, and territories are prohibited from extending to a foreign mission or international organization an exemption from real estate taxes associated with a property on the basis of the property's authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of the international organization, except on the basis of written authorization from OFM.

- Conversely, on the basis of a letter as described above, states, counties, municipalities, and territories are required to extend to a foreign mission or international organization an exemption from real estate taxes to which OFM determines a foreign mission or international organization is entitled. If a state, county, municipality or territory has concerns regarding the extension of such exemption benefits, it should raise the matter directly with OFM.

- Unless otherwise determined by OFM, the effective date of OFM's authorization of an exemption from real estate taxes is the date the property deed in question is signed or transferred.

- States, counties, municipalities, and territories may establish additional procedures to ensure the proper extension of such exemption benefits, provided that:

- such procedures, including the establishment and use of any forms, serve only to facilitate the state, county, municipality, or territory's extension of exemption benefits to a foreign mission or international organization and not as a means to determine the foreign mission's or international organization's entitlement to the exemption benefit associated with a property on the basis of the property's authorized use for diplomatic or consular purposes or for the official business of the international organization, which determination is committed to the sole discretion of the Department of State; and

- the state, county, municipality, or territory obtain written approval from the Director of OFM/PTSB confirming that the proposed procedural requirements do not violate or infringe on any benefits, privileges, or immunities enjoyed by foreign missions or international organizations.

Finally, I further determine that any state or local laws to the contrary are hereby preempted.

The exemption from real estate taxes provided by this designation and determination shall apply to taxes that have been or will be assessed against any foreign mission or international organization with respect to property subject to this determination and shall nullify any existing tax liens with respect to any covered property. This determination shall not require the refund of any taxes previously paid by any foreign mission or international organization regarding such property. These actions are not exclusive and are independent of alternative legal grounds that support the tax exemption afforded herein.

The actions taken in this Designation and Determination are necessary to facilitate relations between the United States and foreign states, protect the interests of the United States, adjust for costs and procedures of obtaining benefits for missions of the United States abroad, and carry out the policy set forth in 22 U.S.C. 4301(b).

This action supersedes the Designation and Determination under the Foreign Missions Act made by the Deputy Secretary of State for Management and Resources on June 23, 2009.

Dated: January 8, 2014.
