CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Information relating to claims described above, including the names and addresses of parties and witnesses to the claims, the category and nature of the claims, their procedural history, correspondence, memoranda, and data which will enable U.S. Government attorneys to identify and process common legal issues in the claims.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

2 U.S.C. sec. 1971, et seq. ('Fisherman's Protective Act'); 22 U.S.C. 2669(f) ('The Act of August 1956'); 28 U.S.C. 1346, 2671-80 ('The Federal Tort Claim Act'); 50 U.S.C. 1701 note; 5 U.S.C. 301.

PURPOSE:

The Office of International Claims and Investment Disputes in the Office of the Legal Adviser will use this record system to organize information to facilitate processing claims made pursuant to the above cited authorities.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Certain information may be made available to other government agencies involved in the processing of the claim, principally the Departments of Justice, Treasury, Commerce, Defense and the Office of the United States Trade Representative, as well as relevant international tribunals and foreign governments. The information may also be released to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to maintain such information. Also see 'Routine Uses' listed in the Department of State Prefatory Statement published in the Federal Register.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE: Electronic media; hard copy.

RETRIEVABILITY:

By claim number or individual claimant or witness name; by nature or category of claim; by other descriptive features of the claim such as the country involved or applicable statute.

SAFEGUARDS:

All Department of State employees and contractors with authorized access have undergone a thorough personnel security background investigation. All users are given information system security awareness training, including the procedures for handling Sensitive But Unclassified (SBU) and personally identifiable information, before being allowed to access the Department of State SBU network. Annual refresher training is mandatory. Before being granted access to the system of records, a user must first be granted access to the SBU network. Access is granted only to users with Diplomatic Security approved clearances. Users must sign a Password Receipt Controls Form. Access to the Department of State and its annexes is controlled by security guards, and admission is limited to those individuals possessing a valid identification card and individuals under proper escort. All records containing personal information are maintained in secured filing cabinets or in restricted areas, access to which is limited to authorized personnel. Access to electronic files is password-protected and under the direct supervision of the system manager. The system of records structures access privileges to reflect the separation of key duties that end-users perform within the functions the application supports. Access privileges are consistent with the need-to-know, separation of duties, and supervisory requirements established for manual processes. The system manager has the capability of printing audit trails of access from the computer media, thereby permitting regular ad hoc monitoring of computer usage. When it is determined that a user no longer needs access, the user account will be disabled.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

These records will be maintained until they become inactive, at which time they will be retired or destroyed according to published record schedules of the Department of State and as approved by the National Archives and Records Administration. More specified information may be obtained by writing to the Director, Office of Information Programs and Services, A/ISS/IPS, SA-2, Department of State, Washington, DC 20522-8001.
