NOTICE

New Program Manager for OFM's Accreditation Division

The Office of Foreign Missions is pleased to announce the arrival of Ms. Natasha Carter as the head of our Accreditation Division (OFM/PR/A).

A former career member of the Foreign Service, Ms. Carter has served in Nigeria, Israel, Egypt, China, Jamaica, and Germany. Ms. Carter transferred to Civil Service in 2014 and most recently served as the Acting Director of Consular Crisis Management in Overseas Citizens Services.

Ms. Carter's office is located at 3507 International Place, N.W.

Ms. Carter is responsible for managing and overseeing the following programs and functions:

- The Foreign Mission Accreditation Program (<https://www.state.gov/bureaus-offices/under-secretary-for-management/office-of-foreign-missions/accreditation/>); and
- the Foreign Mission Dependent Work Authorization Program (<https://www.state.gov/dependent-work-authorization-program>).

The Office of Foreign Missions Accreditation Division reminds the foreign missions that it can now be reached at OFM-Accreditation@state.gov.

Questions concerning this or other Accreditation matters may be directed to OFM Accreditation by telephone at (202) 274-1217 or by electronic mail at OFM-Accreditation@state.gov.
