NOTICE

Reopening of Utah (COVID-19)

On May 1, the state of Utah began relaxing some restrictions put in place in March to contain the spread of the coronavirus — allowing in-restaurant dining, the reopening of businesses such as gyms and salons, and gatherings of up to 20 people. Though face masks are not mandatory for the public, they are highly encouraged. Specific guidelines are available on the state government’s website: <https://coronavirus.utah.gov/utahs-moderate-risk-phase>.
