Mayor Bowser Orders a Citywide Curfew for the District of Columbia

Today, Mayor Bowser ordered a citywide curfew for the District of Columbia from 11pm until 6am on Thursday, June 4th.

During the hours of the curfew, no person, other than persons designated by the Mayor, shall walk, bike, run, loiter, stand, or motor by car or other mode of transport upon any street, alley, park, or other public place within the District.

Individuals performing essential duties as authorized by the Mayor's prior orders, including working media with their outlet-issued credentials and healthcare personnel, are exempt when engaging in essential functions.

All foreign missions and their members are expected to comply with host country laws and regulations. If there is an operational issue preventing a foreign mission or members from complying with the curfew orders, they should contact the Office of Foreign Missions at OFM-EmergencyMgt@state.gov.
