¹ The U.S.-EU Air Transport Agreement, signed in Brussels April 25 and in Washington April 30, 2007, superseded prior agreements as set out in Annex I and was provisionally applied March 30, 2008 for all 27 European Union Member States at that time. Norway and Iceland became party to the U.S.-EU agreement pursuant to an agreement signed at Luxembourg on June 16, 2011 and at Oslo on June 21, 2011 and was provisionally applied from June 21, 2011. Croatia acceded to the EU in 2013. The UK has exited the European Union as of January 31, 2020, however, the United States is continuing to apply the U.S.-EU Air Transport Agreement to U.S.-UK civil aviation relations as a matter of policy until the end of the transition period, which ends on December 31, 2020.

² Multilateral Agreement on the Liberalization of International Air Transportation (MALIAT). Effective March 9, 2019, Samoa withdrew from the MALIAT and for the time being DOT is permitting operation of Samoan air carriers to the United States on the basis of comity and reciprocity pending negotiation of a new bilateral air transport agreement.

³ Applied on the basis of comity and reciprocity (C&R).

⁴ The agreement is between the United States and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, in respect of Curaçao.
