

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

December 16, 2021

NOTICE

Tornado Outbreaks

The catastrophic tornadoes over the weekend that were caused by one of the largest storm outbreaks in U.S. history prompts the U.S. Government to support. Federal officials are actively coordinating with affected states to address unmet needs of survivors working closely with state, local and tribal governments.

To date, there are no reports of deaths or injuries to any foreign national as a result of the storm outbreak.

Additional information and resources concerning tornado readiness is available at <https://www.state.gov/links-resources/>. Please send any inquiries regarding this event via email to OFM-EmergencyMgt@state.gov.