

Latest Global Program Results

DECEMBER 2021

Young boy in Uganda
Photo: USAID

PEPFAR has supported 20 countries to achieve epidemic control of HIV and formed the backbone of the COVID-19 response in Africa

With PEPFAR support, at least 20 countries* have achieved epidemic control of HIV or reached the 90-90-90 HIV treatment targets

PEPFAR has supported at least 20 countries to achieve epidemic control of HIV or reach the 90-90-90 HIV treatment targets, advancing global progress toward the UN Sustainable Development Goal target of ending the AIDS epidemic as a public health threat by 2030.

18.96 million women, men, and children on life-saving antiretroviral treatment

As of Sept. 30 2021, PEPFAR supported life-saving antiretroviral treatment for 18.96 million men, women, and children (compared with 17.2 million last year).

2.8 million babies born HIV-free

As of September 30, 2021, PEPFAR has enabled more than 2.8 million babies of mothers living with HIV to be born HIV-free.

2.8 million ART clients completed tuberculosis TB preventive therapy

In Fiscal Year 2021, PEPFAR supported 2.8 million people on antiretroviral treatment to complete a standard course of TB preventive therapy (compared with 2.7 million last year).

63.4 million people received HIV testing services

In Fiscal Year 2021, PEPFAR supported HIV testing services for 63.4 million people (compared with 50 million last year).

27.7 million voluntary medical male circumcisions performed to prevent HIV infections in men and boys

As of September 30, 2021, PEPFAR supported 27.7 million voluntary medical male circumcisions in east and Southern Africa to help protect men and boys from HIV infection (compared with 25.3 million last year).

2.9 million adolescent girls and young women reached with comprehensive HIV prevention services

In Fiscal Year 2021, PEPFAR reached 2.9 million adolescent girls and young women with comprehensive HIV prevention services (compared with 1.6 million last year).

1.0 million clients newly enrolled on PrEP to prevent HIV infection

In Fiscal Year 2021, PEPFAR supported 1.0 million people to newly enroll on antiretroviral pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) to prevent HIV infection (compared with 312,000 million last year).

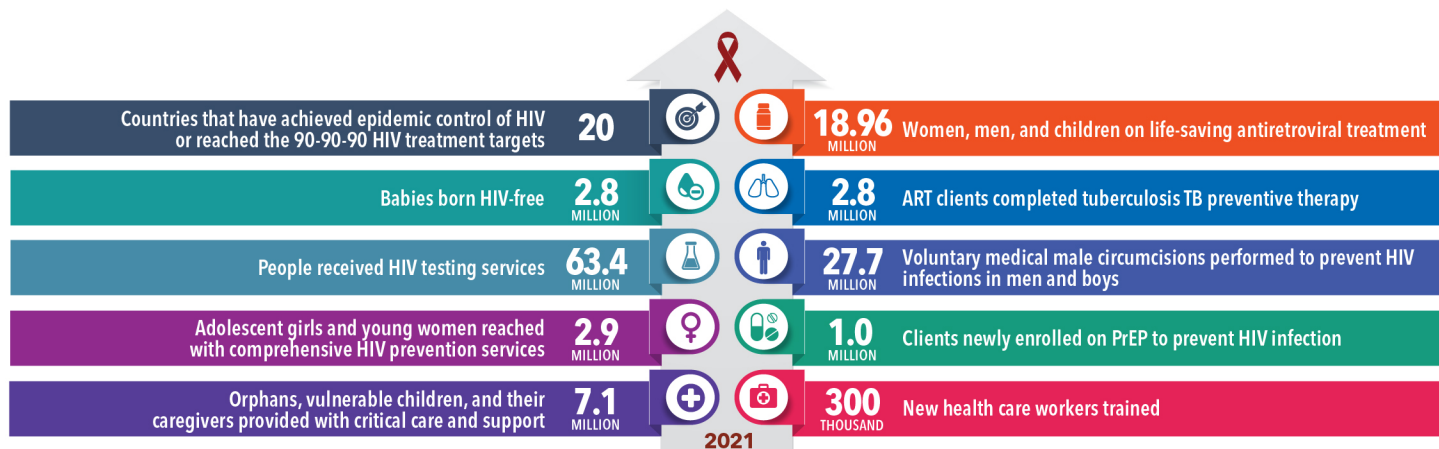

7.1 million orphans, vulnerable children, and their caregivers provided with critical care and support

As of September 30, 2021, PEPFAR provided critical care and support for 7.1 million orphans, vulnerable children, and their caregivers to mitigate the physical, emotional, and economic impact of HIV/AIDS (compared with 6.7 million last year).

Nearly 300,000 new health workers trained

As of September 30, 2021, PEPFAR supported training (including pre-service training) for nearly 300,000 new health care workers to deliver HIV and other health services.

*Botswana, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cambodia, Cameroon, Côte d'Ivoire, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Eswatini, Ethiopia, Kenya, Lesotho, Liberia, Malawi, Mali, Nepal, Rwanda, Senegal, Thailand, Togo, Trinidad and Tobago, and Zimbabwe.

Through PEPFAR, the United States has invested nearly $100 billion in the global AIDS response, the largest commitment by any nation to address a single disease in history. Managed and overseen by the U.S. Department of State, and supported through the generosity of the American people, PEPFAR has saved 21 million lives, prevented millions of infections as well as helped transform the global AIDS response and strengthen global health security.