

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

February 24, 2022

NOTICE

Truck Convoys Arriving to the National Capital Region

Public information indicates the “People’s Convoy” will gather outside Barstow, CA on February 23, 2022, and travel cross-country arriving in the National Capitol region on or about March 1, 2022. There may also be other, separate convoys that travel to Washington, D.C. before or after March 1st.

These truck convoys may adopt similar tactics as those used in Canada, such as blockades at major intersections and access points into the city. It is expected to impact traffic conditions to include possible street closures in and around Washington, D.C.

For the most current information regarding the truck convoys, please follow your local authorities, as well as the local news. Foreign Missions are encouraged to consider alternate scheduling and work options due to the potential impact the truck convoys may have on local traffic in and around Washington, D.C.

Inquiries concerning this matter may be transmitted by electronic mail to OFM-EmergencyMGT@state.gov.