

Austria

- In Belarus engaging with civil society and offering seminars on constitutional reform
- In Western Balkans contributing to improving the effective functioning of legislative bodies and to strengthening the rule of law and the fight against corruption and organized crime, e.g. through vetting of judges
- In Afghanistan supporting the promotion, protection, and respect of all human rights, in particular of women and girls and minorities
- Promoting media freedom and the safety of journalists - hosting an international conference in Vienna in 2022 to underline that any democracy needs free and independent media