(80 Stat. 271; 1 U.S.C. 113)—

“ . . .the Treaties and Other International Acts Series issued under the authority of the Secretary of State shall be competent evidence . . . of the treaties, international agreements other than treaties, and proclamations by the President of such treaties and international agreements other than treaties, as the case may be, therein contained, in all the courts of law and equity and of maritime jurisdiction, and in all the tribunals and public offices of the United States, and of the several States, without any further proof or authentication thereof.”

DEPARTMENT OF STATE WASHINGTON

The Department of State refers to the diplomatic note dated July 9, 2019, from the Embassy of Ukraine concerning its proposal to extend for an additional five years the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Ukraine on Scientific and Technological Cooperation, signed at Washington, DC, on December 4, 2006 (the "S&T Agreement").

The Department confirms that this proposal is acceptable to the United States of America. The Note from the Embassy of Ukraine and this Note in reply shall constitute an Agreement to extend the S&T Agreement, for an additional period of five years, with effect as of 26 May 2019. The extension of the aforementioned Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the last notification on the completion by the Parties of their internal procedures necessary for the extension of the term of validity of this Agreement.
