

Lithuania:

- will continue to support and shelter democracy fighters and activists, especially from our neighborhood – Belarus and Russia
- will initiate and promote international measures to ensure accountability for gross violations of human rights, as well as justice to their victims
- will actively engage with other frontline democracies under threat from authoritarian regimes to exchange best practices and to reinforce democratic resilience
- will further actively support freedom of media and safety of journalists