customary international law as reflected in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, done at Montego Bay on December 10, 1982 (hereinafter, “the 1982 Law of the Sea Convention”);

RECALLING that the 1988 UN Drug Convention provides, inter

HAVING FURTHER REGARD to the urgent need for international cooperation in preventing proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, as reflected in United Nations Security Council Resolution 1540 of 2004, which affirmed that proliferation of nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons, and their means of delivery, constitutes a threat to international peace and security and reaffirmed the need for Member States to prevent proliferation in all its aspects of all weapons of mass destruction;

III. Combined Maritime Operations Program

1. The Parties shall establish a combined maritime operations program between the law enforcement authorities of the United States of America and the law enforcement authorities of Seychelles.
2. The Parties may designate qualified law enforcement officials to act as shipriders. Subject to the laws of the Parties, these shipriders may, in appropriate circumstances:

a. Embark on law enforcement vessels of the other Party;

b. Authorize the pursuit, by the law enforcement vessel on which they are embarked, of suspect vessels fleeing into the territory of the shiprider’s State. The shiprider shall promptly inform his governmental authorities of the pursuit and entry of suspect vessels into the territory;

c. Request and authorize law enforcement officials to assist the shiprider in the conduct of boardings of vessels to enforce the laws of the shiprider’s State;

a. Crew members of the other Party’s vessel may assist in any such action if expressly requested to do so by the shiprider and only to the extent and in the manner requested. Such request may only be made, agreed to, and acted upon in accordance with the applicable laws of both Parties; and

b. Such crew members may use force in self-defense, in accordance with the applicable laws and policies of their Government.

4. When a shiprider is embarked on the other Party’s law enforcement vessel, and subject to the availability of appropriated funds and resources, the other Party shall facilitate regular communications between the shiprider and the shiprider’s headquarters and shall provide messing and quarters for the shiprider in a manner consistent with law enforcement officials of the other Party of the same rank.

IV. Operations in the Territorial Sea and Archipelagic Waters of the Parties

1. Neither Party shall conduct counter-illicit transnational maritime activity operations in the territorial sea and archipelagic waters of the other Party without permission from that Party, granted by this Agreement or otherwise.

2. This Agreement constitutes permission by the Government of Seychelles for the Government of the United States of America to conduct counter-illicit transnational maritime activity operations in the territorial sea and archipelagic waters of Seychelles if an embarked shiprider so authorizes, in accordance with Article III.2 or if a notification is provided by the Government of the United States to the Government of the Seychelles that the Government of the United States is proceeding pursuant to the following, unless or until an objection is received:

a. A suspect vessel, encountered seaward of the territorial sea of the Seychelles, flees into the territorial sea or archipelagic waters of the Seychelles, and is pursued therein by a law enforcement vessel of the United States, without a shiprider embarked, in which case any suspect vessel, other than a vessel flying the flag of the Seychelles, may be boarded and searched, and, if the evidence warrants, detained pending disposition instructions from Seychelles authorities; and
b. A suspect vessel is detected in the territorial sea or archipelagic waters of the Seychelles, and no shiprider is available to embark on a law enforcement vessel of the United States, in which case the law enforcement vessel may enter the territorial sea and archipelagic waters of the Seychelles in order to investigate or board and search any suspect vessel, other than a vessel flying the flag of the Seychelles, and, if the evidence warrants, detain any such vessel pending disposition instructions from Seychelles authorities.

3. Nothing in this Agreement precludes Seychelles from otherwise expressly authorizing operations by the United States in its territorial sea or archipelagic waters or, in waters beyond the territorial sea of any State, aboard its flag vessels suspected of illicit transnational maritime activity.

V. Overflight and Order-to-Land Operations and Procedures

1. The Government of Seychelles shall permit law enforcement aircraft of the United States, pursuant to this Agreement, and subject to reasonable prior notice by the United States and subsequent clearance by Seychelles, to:

   b. With due coordination, land and remain in national airports on the occasions and for the time necessary for proper performance of the operations necessary under this Agreement, including logistics items; and

   c. Transmit orders from the competent authorities of either Party to suspect aircraft to land in the territory of Seychelles, subject to the laws of each Party.

2. In the interest of flight safety, the Parties shall observe the following procedures when transiting Seychelles' national airspace:

   a. b. In the event of unplanned operations, which may include the pursuit of suspect aircraft over the territory, territorial sea or archipelagic waters of Seychelles pursuant to this Agreement, the law enforcement and appropriate aviation authorities of the Parties shall exchange information concerning communications channels and other information pertinent to flight safety.

c. Any aircraft engaged in law enforcement operations or operations in support of law enforcement activities pursuant to this Agreement shall comply with such air navigation and flight safety rules as may be required by aviation authorities of the Parties, and with any written operating procedures that may be developed pursuant to this Agreement for flight operations within Seychelles' national airspace.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, law enforcement aircraft of a Party shall not enter the national airspace of the other Party without express authorization of that Party.

VI. Landing and Port Fees

Vehicles, vessels, and aircraft operated by or for the United States shall not be subject to the payment of landing, terminal, parking, or port fees, or navigation or over-flight charges, or tolls or similar use charges including lighterage and harbor dues; however, the United States shall pay reasonable charges for services requested and received in the implementation of this Agreement.

VII. Operations Seaward of the Territorial Sea

1. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement does not limit boardings of vessels conducted by either Party in accordance with international law, seaward of any State’s territorial sea, whether based on, inter alia, the right of visit, the rendering of assistance to persons, vessels, and property in distress or peril, the consent of the vessel master, or an authorization from the flag State to take law enforcement action.

2. Whenever law enforcement authorities of one Party encounter a suspect vessel flying the flag of the other Party or claiming the nationality of the other Party, located seaward of any State’s Waters, the first Party may request the Government of the other Party:
a. To confirm the claim of the nationality of the vessel; and

b. If such claim is confirmed:

   i. To authorize the boarding and search of the suspect vessel, cargo and the persons found on board by such officials; and

   ii. If evidence of illicit transnational maritime activity is found, authorize the law enforcement authorities of the requesting Party to detain the vessel, cargo and persons on board pending expeditious disposition instructions from the Government of the requested Party.

3. The Parties may agree upon standard forms for the transmission of requests, responses to requests, and reporting of information pursuant to this Agreement. Such standard forms may be adopted, revised, and updated by the mutual consent of the law enforcement authorities of the Parties. The Parties may establish direct operations-center-to-operations-center communications to implement the provisions of this Agreement.

4. Any request made pursuant to this Article shall be supported by the basis on which it is claimed that the reasonable grounds for suspicion exist. A requested Party shall respond to requests pursuant to this Article as expeditiously as possible.

5. Authorization to board and search shall be understood as having been granted if the Government of the other Party has not replied to the request for authorization within three hours.

   VIII. Jurisdiction Over Detained Vessels

   1. In all cases arising in the territory of a Party, or seaward of any Party’s territorial sea (and, in the case of fisheries enforcement, beyond the jurisdiction in accordance with international law of any coastal State) in respect of a vessel having the nationality of a Party, that Party shall have the primary right to exercise jurisdiction over a detained vessel, cargo, and persons on board, including seizure, forfeiture, arrest, and prosecution, provided, however, that Party may, subject to its constitution and laws, waive its primary right to exercise jurisdiction or elect not to exercise jurisdiction and authorize the enforcement of the other Party’s law against the vessel, cargo, and persons on board.
2. In cases arising in the contiguous zone of a Party, where applicable, not involving suspect vessels fleeing from the territory of that Party or suspect vessels claiming the nationality of that Party, in which both Parties have the authority to exercise jurisdiction to prosecute, the Party that conducts the boarding and search shall have the primary right to exercise jurisdiction in accordance with international law.

3. Instructions as to the exercise of jurisdiction pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article shall be given promptly.

4. A Party’s consent to the exercise of jurisdiction by the other Party may be granted verbally, however, as soon as possible, it shall be clearly communicated in writing through diplomatic channels, without prejudice to the immediate exercise of jurisdiction over the suspect vessel by the other Party.

5. Each Party agrees to permit the return of seaworthy vessels subject to its jurisdiction and take measures, consistent with the laws and regulations of the Party, to prevent any such vessel from again engaging in illicit transnational maritime activity.

   b. Entry by other means of additional law enforcement officials of the other Party;

   b. The boarding and search teams may operate from law enforcement vessels or aircraft of the Parties.

   c. The boarding and search team may carry standard law enforcement arms.

   d. When conducting a boarding and search, law enforcement officials shall take due account of the need not to endanger the safety of life at sea, the security of the suspect vessel and its cargo, and the importance of not prejudicing the commercial and legal interests of the flag State or any other interested State. Such officials shall also bear in mind the need for courtesy, respect, and consideration for the persons on board the suspect vessel.

3. When conducting aviation activities pursuant to this Agreement, the Parties shall not endanger the lives of persons on board and the safety of civil aircraft.

XII. Third Party Vessels and Aircraft
