Hawaii Wildfires

The Office of Foreign Missions is engaged with emergency management entities responding to the wildfires in Hawaii. Local officials urge residents and visitors to evacuate if possible and adhere to local warnings. Federal officials and Hawaiian officials are working together on the ground to support life-saving efforts. As soon as it is safe to do so, they will support infrastructure restoration efforts as well.

As of August 10, 2023, OFM has no confirmed reports of foreign nationals impacted. We are aware that the foreign mission community is engaged in consular responses to the situation.
