Technical Areas Endorsed by the Government of Jamaica for U.S. Global Health Security Investments

* The World Health Organization (WHO) States Parties Annual Report (SPAR) is a publicly available self-assessment by the government of its global health security capacities. Scores presented here are based on a 5-point scale.

The U.S. has partnered with Jamaica on Global Health Security (GHS) since 2010

Jamaica has not yet conducted a Joint External Evaluation (JEE)

The U.S. Government (USG) GHS Program in Jamaica

The U.S. partners with the Government of Jamaica to strengthen capacities to prevent, detect, and respond to infectious disease threats. Areas of collaboration include strengthening zoonotic disease detection and response, national laboratory systems, disease surveillance, human resources, and risk communication and community engagement.

U.S. investments support and build on those made by the Government of Jamaica, in coordination with other partners and stakeholders. Current and planned GHS activities reflect national priorities, utilize the best available data, and align with the country context and the health system.
